Managing SUCCESSFUL communities

What Is SECO, why we are unique?

“Created For Community, By Community Leaders”

For over 12 years, SECO has been the premier conference for owning and managing successful manufactured home communities. As a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization, net proceeds fund projects for veterans and first responders living in manufactured housing communities.

Who Attends SECO?

More than 500 community owners, regional, onsite, and third party managers, manufacturers, lenders, retailers, and other manufactured housing industry personnel from 35 plus states attend SECO every year. Programming is focused on the needs of those owning one to 100 communities, including owners and investors, general managers, and community managers.

Don't miss this chance to reach a nationwide audience of community owners and managers!

- Establish your place in the under appreciated industry of manufactured home communities. SECO gathers over 500 community owners & managers during a 3.5 day blitz!
- We build community – during after hours events, organic networking becomes very powerful.
- We build managers – providing educational sessions led by industry leaders, teaching attendees new skills to add to their skill base.
- We build businesses – a specially chosen lineup of speakers who share higher level training, insights, and inspiration aimed at improving communities and the industry.
- Owners & Managers from around the nation meet in person to share process improvements.
- We provide affordable housing by selling and renting new manufactured homes.
